

Oxford Kids Camp (OKC) counselors and staff are selected on the basis of leadership ability, personality, excellent physical, mental, and emotional health, and well-developed social skills. Being a successful counselor demands a dedicated sense of commitment, a deep sense of maturity, a positive caring-for-others attitude, and a high standard of performance.

Counselors are expected not to use tobacco, alcohol, drugs, or profanity while at camp and to support the philosophy, rules, policies, and regulations of OKC.

Please write legibly in ink. Attach a sheet if more space is needed.
